Q: Sensei! I thought up a new technique for Luffy. He stretches his mouth and eats up his enemy and later flushes him down the toilet along with his *oop! What do you think? Good idea, huh?

A: It stinks-o.

Q: I've got a question for Oda Sensei. Whaddaya call Belle-Mère's hairdo?

A: It's called "women are brave." Go to the beauty parlor and shout it out.

Q: I'm glad that brother Sanji is a ladies' man and not a "gentlemen's man."

A: Indeed.

Q: When Sanji is thinking about a girl, his cigarette smoke forms the shape of a heart. How does he do that? I want to do that too!! Please (x100) teach me!

A: Hmm. First you have to be over 20 years old. Then light a cigarette and take a deep puff of smoke. Let the smoke soak up the feelings of love that you've prepared in your lungs and exhale it from your mouth. The smoke will surely come out in the shape of a heart.

Q: I can't quite decide whether Yosaku and Johnny are strong or not. I'm within a frog's hair of being able to tell. But really, between those two and Helmeppo, who will develop more?

A: I have high hopes that, one day, Kaya will become an excellent doctor.
